Free time		Our suggestions: Muzeum Śląskie [The Silesian Museum in Katowice] (ul. T. Dobrowolskiego 1, 40-205 Katowice) https://muzeumslaskie.pl/en/about-us/ Bound by the heritage of the region, its historical dynamics, its numerous cultures and the leading role of industry, and yet recognizing Silesia's intellectual and artistic background, Muzeum Śląskie provides a space for dialogue with the past and the achievements of modernity to further explore Silesia, Poland and Europe. Nikiszowiec (Rymarska 4, 40-425 Katowice) The old coalmining district, the remnants of the original workers' housing estate familoks (specialized multi-family residences) comprise one of Poland's official national Historic Monuments (Pomnik historii), as designated January 28, 2011 and tracked by the National Heritage Board of Poland Spodek (Al. Wojciecha Korfanteo, Katowice 40-160) Spodek (meaning "saucer" in Polish) is a multipurpose arena complex in Katowice, Poland, opened in 1971. Aside from the main dome, the complex includes a gym, an ice rink, a hotel and three large car parks.
